Don't slam on the brakes!

Dear VR subscriber,

It's been such a great ride, but now your subscription to Vancouver Review is over.

Don't abandon your window seat on the Best of the West: regional perspectives on the issues of the day, cutting-edge fiction, hot-off-the-press reviews and stunning visuals — all in one award-winning arts and culture magazine.

Renew now and save up to 40% off the regular price.

We probably don't have to sell you on VR's smart, cheeky and stimulating content. But we urge you to renew now so you don't miss out.

Now you can subscribe for four, eight or twelve issues at a discount of up to 40 percent off the newsstand price. Just mail in your payment with the tear-off stub at the top (or use Paypal via our website, www.vancouverreview.com). We promise you a trip!

Stay with us on the journey,

Gudrun Will, Editor-in-
